Bob-

We're working out language on this end. I may be in a position to call on Monday. I will be meeting with Encana on Monday afternoon. Depending on schedule I may connect with Kate in Denver (and others if that works as well). We're working out a time for Tuesday morning for the technical team. Lots moving.

Have a great weekend.

Jerimiah – I hope your trip back to Wyoming went smoothly.

At our meeting, you mentioned the possibility of talking today, following your discussions with WDEQ. I'm available for a call, if you still think it would worthwhile. However, we could also wait for the technical discussion between EPA and WDEQ on Tuesday. Please let me know. I'm also curious when you will be meeting with Encana and hope you will let us know. We share your interest in moving ahead quickly.
